Blessings from Beth...

What would your world look like if you saw it as Jesus sees it? Would your day-to-day activities line up in a different order? Would your day begin and end with a bit more focus, a tad more grace?

I am reading a book that deals with this thought-provoking idea – see the world as Jesus does. Rather than seeing people – their flaws – their outward appearances – see them through the lens of grace! The perspective of this author is basically this, ‘God is calling the next generation of Christians to restore people by sharing the good news in a new way’. The new way? Love them by becoming engaged in their life! Quit trying to change the lost – live His life in front of them. Lay aside your preconceived ideas about who they are based on how they dress, how they speak, the tats, the hair, the job, where they attend church, if they attend church. Didn’t Jesus say those who are well don’t need a physician – rather go to the hurting, the broken, the sick among society?

I offer you a challenge! Do something totally radical. Look at your spiritual influence today in Central Texas. Where you are today is safe and probably comfortable. God’s heart is to move you in a new way with a redefined purpose! Ask the Lord to make you one who restores! Restoration garments will fit each of us differently but in wearing them, you will be ‘Jesus’ to broken people who are NOT looking for a church, a small group, a new best friend, a fashion consultant – they are looking for the Savior!

Melodious Moments...

One of my favorite stocking stuffers ever was an ink pen. This wasn’t any ordinary pen; it was the coolest pen I had ever seen! It had buttons that allowed you to change the ink color depending on your mood or need of the moment. There were 20 colors of ink spanning the color spectrum. I used my special pen to write notes to those I really wanted to impress using the various colors to write words with special emphasis. It was my very special pen.

Proverbs 3:3 reads, “Do not let kindness and truth leave you; Bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart.” I’ve been meditating on the last part of that verse where it talks about writing God’s kindness and truth on the tablet of our heart. What kind of a pen does it take to write on that kind of tablet? I imagine God’s pen that He uses to write on the tablet of our hearts must be the most extraordinary pen ever made. It’s a pen held by the Holy Spirit writing the lessons God wants us to remember from His word. And His penmanship is without error!

Often those things written on our heart are those things He first wrote in His word. Other things are those truths he reveals to us as we see him working through our circumstances. My encouragement to you is to be in His word daily and allow him to write His truth on your tablet!
