Blessings from Beth...

Pondering....a word that we do not use very often, if at all! Luke's gospel speaks of Mary 'pondering' all these things...keeping them in her heart. The word 'ponder' literally means to think about something carefully for a long period of time. I'm not sure we as Americans can even understand that definition because we become distracted so easily!

I know the Longhorns have had a month to ponder their game plan for the National Championship. (Go Horns!!) I know that many of our high school seniors have pondered what it will be like to be 'free' of the K-12 system, followed closely by pondering 'now what will I do'? Some of you ladies have pondered whether or not to begin yet another New Year's resolution diet and for many, each and every morning you ponder... 'Do I really want to get out of bed today?'

But lately I have found myself pondering two questions which were posed to readers in an article written by Matt Chandler: What stirs your affection for Christ? What robs you of that affection? The more I examine those two questions, the deeper the conviction of my sin and the deeper my love for the Savior!

I leave you with the same two questions! May you find yourself thinking about these carefully for a very long period of time...

Blessed to be His,

Beth

Melodious Moments...

A few weeks ago, someone sent me a wonderful Power-Point presentation on the habits of geese. One thing I learned from it is that when a goose is unable to continue in formation, two geese will stop with him and stay there until he is ready to either get back to flying or dies.

Here is my question for you for this new year, "Is there someone missing from the formation?" So many times we get so busy that we don't even realize that certain 'someone' hasn't been around. Or maybe you are that someone who is missing from the flock?

We were created to be in relationship. Not only in relationship with our heavenly Father, but also in relationship with our sisters in Christ. The Book of Ecclesiastes says it like this:

Ecc. 4:9-12 ⁹Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work: ¹⁰If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up! ¹¹Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone? ¹²Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken."

Our prayer for 2010 is that we will once again find you among our women on Thursdays enjoying sweet fellowship and growing in your faith as you dive deeper into the study of God's word.

Happy New Year!

Melody
